

The pupils of Rock City, NC wander the streets aimlessly, misguided, only to follow the bloody footsteps of those who have come before them. They are blinded by the limelight of a fast life and easy money. Freck, Keira, and Pat are on three different routes to a common grave. Neither of them needed the street life, but curiosity and peer pressure of hood recruiters are quite persuasive. Once they become wrapped up in the life that they so desperately chased, they find themselves alone, betrayed, and lost in the limbo of life and death. They were warned to avoid fate's detour on the fast lane, but these signs aren't something that a distracted mind can see; they must be felt.
