

Valentine's Day should be about the emotion, the love between two people, not spending money. And that is the philosophy Grant Franklyn lives by. It would be more effective if he had that special someone in his life, but unfortunately the only woman he wants nothing to do with him. Jacqueline Hunter is all for falling in love and has already lost her heart. Unfortunately the object of her affection doesn't realize she exists unless he is trying to get on her last nerve. When she's stuck at Grant Franklyn's farm after a freak snow storm, whatever is a girl to do? Jacqueline has some naughty ideas, but can she get Grant on board?
