

When the road home becomes dauntingâ€”sometimes a very capable girl on a bicycle can help find the way.â€”Charming, surprising, familiar, and just downright wonderful.â€”Allie Pleiter, author of Yukon Wedding and Bluegrass Blessings

When principal ballerina Sasha Davis suffers a career-ending injury at age thirty-eight, she leaves her Boston-based dance company and retreats to the home of her youth in Minnesota. But Sashaâ€™s injuries limit her as much as her motherâ€™s recent death haunts her. Concluding she canâ€™t recover alone, Sasha reluctantly hires a temporary live-in aide. Enter the ubercapable Evelyn Burt. As large-boned as Sasha is delicate, Evelyn is her employerâ€™s opposite in every way. Small town to Sashaâ€™s urban chic, outgoing to Sashaâ€™s iciness, and undaunted where Sasha is hopeless, nineteen-year-old Evelyn is newly engaged and sees the world as one big, shiny opportunity. Evelyn soon discovers Sasha needs to heal more than bones. Slowly, as the wounds begin to mend and the tables tilt, the two women form an unlikely alliance and discover the astounding power of even the smallest act done in the name of love. Finding Our Way Home is a story of second chances and lavish grace.
