

I, Human is an original, thought-provoking epic fantasy science fiction series. It incorporates elements of science fiction, action, adventure, epic fantasy, hard science fiction, metaphysics, philosophy, psychology and the paranormal. The series is for those who like to ponder interesting ideas and enjoy an epic story along the way. Come on a quest of discovery and adventure as Captain Magnusson, Padre, Vlen, Astra, Ambassador Legari, and others on board the star carrier Veda explore multi-dimensional worlds and alternate realities. In part one, the epic starts at a slow pace and gains momentum in part two, gathering more momentum with each part added. Altogether, there are 85 chapters in the first volume, with the second volume beginning at part eight. In my fashion, I endeavor to create credible characters and their universe using a robust framework on which to mount interesting and powerful ideas. I hope you enjoy reading the books.
