

In a dim terraced house on a cobbled street in West Yorkshire, Cyril gives refuge to all the stray dogs, abandoned furniture and broken toys he finds. The ghosts of his past find their way in anyway - and now one of his neighbours wants him evicted. When Saabira moves in next door with her husband Aaman and their young daughter, she hopes the family has left all its troubles behind in Pakistan. But memories can be stubborn things, and Saabira has a few that even the wild winds from the moors canâ€™t shake. Cyril just wants to be left in peace. Saabira just feels compelled to reach out. With all their differences, can the two of them begin to trust each other?
