

This book reveals the tyranny of black slavery the south plantation of America and the pains of these slavers. Tom, an old black slaver, as the protagonist in this book served for cruel slaver owner Legg after several resells among slavers. He finally was beat to death by his master in order to protect two female slavers. Female slaver Eliza risk her life to escape with her children because they are going to be sold as slaver, under the help of abolitionists, she and her husband finally arrived in Canada. This book speaks highly of the spirit of resisting landlord and striving for freedom, and shows respect to the resigned charity and forgiveness of Christian presented by Tom.
